News of Friends

Hold in the Light: Glen Causey and family, Cindy Eyler; Karie Firoozmand; Ann Kehinde; and Diane Proctor's stepson, James Proctor.

Please send cards or notes to: Sandi Adams and Cindy Eyler. Addresses are available in the Meeting Directory. Please contact the Office if you need help finding these.

Announcements

BYM Educational Grant Applications are now open to students in BYM Monthly Meetings to assist with undergraduate or trade-school costs. Funded by the BYM Educational Endowment, individual scholarships ranging from $1- $3,000. The application is now open and will close on March 31, 2026.

The Library has a complete set of Friends Journals bound for 1956 - 2014 and unbound for 2015 - 2022. We no longer need them as they are all available free online. If you are interested in acquiring them or know of a library or Meeting that might want them, please let us know. Contact Bob Goren or Kathy O'Dell.

The Library Committee is honoring Martin Luther King Jr.'s birthday with a display of books about the Civil Rights Movement in the U.S. On our blog: This week, we're featuring a book about John Lewis for early readers and one for high school/young adults. Click the links to read!

The GEDCO CARES food pantry and office requests donations of: laundry detergent soap pods, dish detergent (small or medium bottles), deodorant, small boxes of tissues (e.g., Kleenex), and soup. The GEDCO CARES pantry will be closed on the upcoming holidays. We will make our next delivery on Jan. 7, but we will continue to collect items in the lower lobby of the Meetinghouse. Thank you!

Donations to the Social Order Box for January and February will go to Doctors Without Borders, providing lifesaving care to people in more than 75 countries who are enduring conflict, displacement, disease outbreaks, and more. Donations for the Social Order Box can be made online here. Checks may also be mailed to the Meetinghouse or checks and cash may be placed in the S.O. Box to the left of the Library doors. Please make checks payable to Stony Run Friends Meeting, with 'S.O. Box' on the memo line.
